master for Prescott, has been apment today.

Upon receipt of word that Mr. postmaster and for 22 years a highly valued employe of the local postoffice, had received the appointment, Postmaster Herndon wired Senator Cameron congratulating him upon this action. To a representative of said yesterday:

"Mr. Day is a very efficient man, one of the most capable men, a man of splendid habits. Everyone in the vancement.

Mr. Day has been in the postal service 22 years. Born in San Francisco, he has lived in Prescott long enough to be considered a native, having come to this city with her man and Member of the Board of Supervisors and attested by the Clerk and living at Hackberry until their removal to Prescott.

Always a valued member of the local postoffice force, Mr. Day, then a clerk, was made first assistant postmaster in 1916, under Postmaster Herndon, since which time he has filled the position very capably. He will take office as postmaster after the first of the year.

Postmaster Herndon yesterday ex-

"In my entire service," he said, "I always been given me, and we in the postoffice have worked together for the efficient management of the office. You can see that harmony has prevailed, when you learn that the Prescott postoffice is the only office in Arizona that shows a plus-100 per cent rating on the postal department records at Washington, as f had the pleasure of learning during my recent visit at the capital.

"Mr. Day is a most efficient postal worker. Not once does he have to refer to the department regulationshe has them in his head. He and the other 15 employes of this office deserve the highest praise for their work." Mr. Herndon contemplates enteri the life insurance business upon the expiration of his term as postmaster. Himself an efficient postmaster, and having given general satisfaction to the public, he now has received a number of proposals from life insurance companies, among which are offers to take over the management of southern Arizona for one company and the manager of California for the Kansas Life Insurance company. He has not decided yet what offer he will accept, except to declare:

"I will not leave Prescott. You couldn't move me out of Prescott. What offer I accept will depend largely upon the condition of my remaining a citizen of the Mile High city."

DIVORCE FROM HER

Since Rafaela disappeared, Jesus has been waiting calmly as his latin temperament will permit. Now that the time has come when patience ceases to be a virtue, Jesus Ortega has filed suit for divorce against his esposa, and wants it to be decreed by the court that for deserting him in March, 1918, Rafaela sacrifices all right, title and interest in lots 5 in blocks 2 and 3 of the town of Clemenceau.

That was the substance of a divorce complaint filed yesterday by Norman Wykoff of Jerome. The Ortegas were married at El Paso on the 24th of June, 1916, according to the Mexican way of calculating it. They have had no children.
